HOMETOWN SCI-FI

There's an old saying about Iowa, "The funnest thing to do is to watch the corn grow." Whoever says this clearly has never visited Iowa City. A place where even sci-fi enthusiasts in the community have a chance to get involved to make a movie. Recently, Iowa City producer, Al Stroh began assembling a volunteer crew for "Moon Zero 3." A retro vision of the future in outerspace. Actors, production, and sci-fi fans come get involved in a project that could only happen in Iowa City!
